MEDLOCK AMES

Vintner Ames Morison, who served in the Peace Corps, and his friend and business partner, Christopher Medlock James, are committed to the environment. Their vineyard in Sonoma's Alexander Valley is farmed without insecticides, chemical fertilizers or herbicides and relies on solar energy. medlockames.com.

SIP 2002 Alexander Valley Bell Mountain Ranch Red.

"It shows layered notes of plums, dried cherries and figs alongside butterscotch, baking spices and toast."

TASTE A simple, rustic charcuterie platter and some crispy bread to enjoy as an appetizer wine. Decant for even more aromatic impact.
